DAY 2 — BOSTON — EMBARKATION

Boston is ubiquitous. As the Cradle of Modern America, it birthed a revolution. Laced in legacy and a world of cultures, the city has stories to tell. Follow the red-brick road along the Freedom Trail, and admire the zenith of colonial history and modern innovation. Cobblestone walkways, civic landmarks and classic architecture sit pretty to reveal authentic Americana from the perspective of one of the oldest cities in the United States. From bookstore and boutique to street performer, Boston is groundbreaking.

DAY 3 — PROVINCETOWN, MA

At the northern tip of Cape Cod, the first pilgrims from the Old World stepped off the Mayflower in 1620. Pilgrim Monument stretches high above the landscape overlooking the cerulean sprawl of the bay. The dense array of shops and restaurants on Commercial Street host a constant stream of visitors looking for the best of Cape Cod's seafood and souvenirs. From multicolored murals to sunny decks on which to sit a spell, this spot feels like a slice of paradise.

DAY 4 — NEWPORT, RI

This city on Aquidneck Island is lovingly referred to as the Sailing Capital of the World, having hosted the famed America's Cup yacht race for more than 50 years. Gilded Age mansions dot the landscape. Sprawling estates such as The Breakers, Rosecliff, Marble House and The Elms were considered "cottages" by the wealthy industrialist families whose legacies they carry. Delight in the rich history, phenomenal cliffside views and award-winning culinary traditions of this fashionable seaside retreat.

DAY 5 — MONTAUK (SAG HARBOR), NY

As the eastern tip of Long Island and New York itself, Montauk is often referred to as "The End." This destination is a hotspot for Eastern Seaboard explorers. You'll be amazed by the 1796 Montauk Point Lighthouse that greets us at our launching point to some of the most serene views in the state.

DAY 7 — BALTIMORE, MD

A visit to Clipper City brings a true taste of America. It's the birthplace of national legends such as Billie Holiday and "The Star-Spangled Banner." Literary treasure Edgar Allan Poe claimed it as his birthplace — even though he was born in Boston. This fascinating spot perfectly blends historic and modern. Visit the childhood home of baseball's first celebrity – Babe Ruth – explore the enchanting Inner Harbor and more.

DAY 8 – NORFOLK, VA

Norfolk's maritime heritage becomes immediately apparent upon sight of the massive battleship USS Wisconsin (BB-64) docked in its harbor. One of four powerful Iowa-class battleships, "Wisky" served from World War II all the way through Operation Desert Storm. Now retired, she serves as a museum at the popular Nauticus National Maritime Center. Gardens, theaters and dedications to WWII-era U.S. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, along with other attractions, draw visitors to the city.

DAY 10 – WILMINGTON, NC

DAY 11 – CHARLESTON, SC

Along the southern coast of South Carolina rests Charleston, boasting a unique blend of casual and sophisticated in the ever-present beauty of its blooming culture. A stroll through one of the Savannah's city squares provides the proper backdrop for a renaissance of emotion, and the collaborative efforts of its architectural artisans have inspired a Southern-gothic aesthetic different from that of any other place. Be enticed by the bounty of the centuries-old City Market and explore history at Davenport House and other intriguing highlights on an included narrated tour through the cobblestone streets.

DAY 13 - AMELIA ISLAND (FERNANDINA BEACH), FL

This Victorian-style seaport is the stomping ground of adventuresome legends. It tells tales of bootleggers and pirates, shrimpers and seamen. Downtown is an enchanting village that flaunts its historic district in rich, lovingly preserved architecture. Drink in some local spirit on an included visit to the Marlin & Barrel Distillery, with tastings and a behind-the-scenes look. The party continues at the Palace Saloon, and the Amelia Island Welcome Center and Shrimping Museum peer deep into the brine for insights on a crucial local industry.
