A stroll through one of the Savannah's city squares provides the proper backdrop for a renaissance of emotion, and the collaborative efforts of its architectural artisans have inspired a Southern-gothic aesthetic different from that of any other place. This pedestrian-friendly city is where the little things – breweries and mustard-based barbeque, live oaks and lighthouses – come together to create a mighty experience. Be enticed by the bounty of the centuries-old City Market and explore history at Davenport House and other intriguing highlights on an included narrated tour through the cobblestone streets.

DAY 3 – CHARLESTON, SC

Along the southern coast of South Carolina rests Charleston, boasting a unique blend of casual and sophisticated in the ever-present beauty of its blooming culture. This charming port features a maze of recreation ripe for travelers to navigate. Eyes light up at the spectacle of the candy-colored waterfront houses on Rainbow Row, and guests love surveying the ocean from the scenic seawall promenade of The Battery. These highlights and others make for an engaging included tour.

DAY 4 – WILMINGTON, NC

The Eastern Seaboard is rich with naval and railway history. Explore part of that legacy at the Wilmington Railroad Museum on an included tour. Visitors stroll along the Riverwalk, ducking into pastel-colored shops, locally owned bistros and seafood eateries with views of miles of open water.

DAY 5 – DAY AT SEA

DAY 6 – NORFOLK, VA

Norfolk's maritime heritage becomes immediately apparent upon sight of the massive battleship USS Wisconsin (BB-64) docked in its harbor. One of four powerful Iowa-class battleships, "Wisky" served from World War II all the way through Operation Desert Storm. Now retired, she serves as a museum at the popular Nauticus National Maritime Center. Gardens, theaters and dedications to WWII-era U.S. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, along with other attractions, draw visitors to the city.

DAY 7 - BALTIMORE, MD

A visit to Clipper City brings a true taste of America. It's the birthplace of national legends such as Billie Holiday and "The Star-Spangled Banner." Literary treasure Edgar Allan Poe claimed it as his birthplace — even though he was born in Boston. This fascinating spot perfectly blends historic and modern. Visit the childhood home of baseball's first celebrity – Babe Ruth – explore the enchanting Inner Harbor and more.

DAY 9 - MONTAUK (SAG HARBOR), NY

As the eastern tip of Long Island and New York itself, Montauk is often referred to as "The End." This destination is a hotspot for Eastern Seaboard explorers. You'll be amazed by the 1796 Montauk Point Lighthouse that greets us at our launching point to some of the most serene views in the state.

DAY 10 - NEWPORT, RI

This city on Aquidneck Island is lovingly referred to as the Sailing Capital of the World, having hosted the famed America's Cup yacht race for more than 50 years. Gilded Age mansions dot the landscape. Sprawling estates such as The Breakers, Rosecliff, Marble House and The Elms were considered "cottages" by the wealthy industrialist families whose legacies they carry. Delight in the rich history, phenomenal cliffside views and award-winning culinary traditions of this fashionable seaside retreat.

DAY 11 – NANTUCKET, MA

This tiny island has been home to indigenous peoples, Quakers, whalers, counterculture free spirits and the upper echelons of industry and commerce. At heart, it's an unassuming little ration of heaven on Earth – a summer playground of disarming natural beauty. Charming shops along cobblestone downtown streets offer all manner of treats, while beyond lies a wealth of wonder – quirky museums, grand galleries, powdery beaches, local brews and so much more.

DAY 12 - PROVINCETOWN, MA

At the northern tip of Cape Cod, the first pilgrims from the Old World stepped off the Mayflower in 1620. Pilgrim Monument stretches high above the landscape overlooking the cerulean sprawl of the bay. The dense array of shops and restaurants on Commercial Street host a constant stream of visitors looking for the best of Cape Cod's seafood and souvenirs. From multicolored murals to sunny decks on which to sit a spell, this spot feels like a slice of paradise.

DAY 13 - BOSTON, MA

Boston is ubiquitous. As the Cradle of Modern America, it birthed a revolution. Laced in legacy and a world of cultures, the city has stories to tell. Follow the red-brick road along the Freedom Trail, and admire the zenith of colonial history and modern innovation. Cobblestone walkways, civic landmarks and classic architecture sit pretty to reveal authentic Americana from the perspective of one of the oldest cities in the United States. From bookstore and boutique to street performer, Boston is groundbreaking.

DAY 14 – PORTLAND, ME

On a peninsula in Casco Bay, this darling of the Pine Tree State – formerly its capital – lends urban sensibility to the wild splendor of the craggy coastline beyond. At the Old Port waterfront, restaurants and revelry now fill the 19th-century warehouses. Stroll along cobblestone streets and breathe in the fresh scent of the sea. Perhaps catch the strains of some bluegrass or blues from a nearby bar while hardworking fishermen on the wharves catch the next day's lunch. At Cape Elizabeth just to the south, the Portland Head Light stands as a beacon to the ocean's travelers.

DAY 15 – BAR HARBOR, ME

The sunrise greets this magical port on Mount Desert Island before any other place in America during fall. An encircling landscape of granite gorgeously sculpted by eons is the breathtaking backdrop for a community rooted in tradition and a true sense of place. In Acadia National Park, standing on the rare crushed-shell surface of Sand Beach affords a panorama of nature's pageantry, from pink granite to towering evergreen. Soak in some Downeast hospitality on a traditional lobster boat tour optional premium experience. As seals laze on jugged rocks, we make our way to commune with Cadillac Mountain – the East Coast's highest peak.

DAY 16 – DAY AT SEA

DAY 17 - HALIFAX, NS

Coastal living, rugged wilderness and urban polish converge around Nova Scotia's capital. Drink in the lively mix of historic and modern in the beating heart of this lively seaport. Bustling streets slope down toward indigo brine and oceanic splendor, stretching east into oblivion. Bathe in botanical beauty at the Public Gardens. The fortified summit of Citadel Hill – never needed for actual protection – stands as a testament to the peaceful nature of the nation. The Maritime Museum of the Atlantic and the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21 offer their own remarkable perspectives.
